

Practical Information – MA and MA Pathway in Leadership Studies for ACCA Members

Dates

The next programme commences in October 2008 with induction days being held in Exeter in early October. This enables participants and coaches to get to know each other and become comfortable with the facilities on the e-learning website.

The dates below show the month in which each phase of the programme commences. During each phase participants will study via the e-learning website, receive personal coaching and meet with their personal coach and tutor group on mutually agreed dates and locations.
