

ACCA Training Principal Eligibility information

Type of Practising Certificate	Approved Employer Training Period	Training Principal Eligibility
ACCA practising certificate	3 years training in an ACCA Approved Employer Practising Certificate Development stream that has been recognised for audit training purposes. At least 2 years of the training must be obtained post-membership before the practising certificate is issued.	For an ACCA practising certificate valid in all territories: A member of ACCA who holds an ACCA practising certificate OR A member from any other professional body that is recognised for audit purposes under prevailing legislation in the relevant country who holds a practising certificate OR A principal who is eligible to supervise training towards a practising certificate and audit qualification valid in the UK, Republic of Ireland, Cyprus or Zimbabwe OR Any other person having, in the opinion of ACCA Council, adequate qualifications and experience
ACCA practising certificate and audit qualification	3 years training in an ACCA Approved Employer Practising Certificate Development stream that has been recognised for audit training purposes. At least 2 years of the training must be obtained post-membership before the practising certificate is issued.	For an ACCA practising certificate valid in: UK (including Jersey, Guernsey and the Isle of Man) and Republic of Ireland A member of ACCA who holds an ACCA practising certificate and audit qualification OR A fully qualified company auditor under the Companies Act 1989 (United Kingdom) or the Companies Act 1990 (Republic of Ireland) who holds an appropriate practising certificate OR A company auditor practising in member states of the European Union (subject to approval from the Secretary of /State) Cyprus A fully qualified company auditor under the law of Cyprus who practises as an auditor in the country Zimbabwe A fully qualified company auditor under the law of Zimbabwe who practises as an auditor in the country.